

Spring and Summer Events

Last Updated Sunday, 28 December 2008

Most visitors know about our great skiing. But the Rutland and Killington areas have festivals and activities all year round, especially during the Spring and Summer months when the weather is warmer. From wine festivals to music festivals to hot-air balloon festivals, the Edelweiss Lodge is conveniently located to enjoy them all.

Spring Events

March

Middletown Springs Annual Maple Festival

"Sugaring in a cast iron kettle over an open fire. Delicious maple desserts, maple products and crafts and this year's new syrup will be available for sale." in Middletown Springs March 18, 2007

April

Annual Sunshine Daydream Festival

Each April Killington welcomes spring with a tribute to the Grateful Dead, complete with Ben & Jerry's samples drum circles and tie-dyeing.

Summer Events June

Balloon Festival

Technically, it's called "Vermont's Premier Balloon Festival, Fine Art, Music and Craft Fair," and it takes place every Father's Day weekend. (38.4 miles east of the Edelweiss Lodge)

July

Killington Wine Festival

"Educational and informative wine & food seminars, food tastings and a showcase of more than 100 wines." July 13-15, 2007

Basin Bluegrass Festival

13 Bands playing all weekend, the 2nd Saturday in July, in Brandon.

Killington Music Festival

Music of the Mountains Concert Series, Saturdays June 30th - Aug 11th

August

Vermont Long Trail Festival

First annual hiker & music festival celebrating the adventure of walking. August 17-20, 2007

September

Killington Classic - Motorcycle Touring Rally September 5-9, 2007

"We have planned Killington Classic to be a "true" motorcycle touring rally, where motorcyclists come together to enjoy the comraderie that only motorcyclists know while enjoying some of the best touring roads in the country."

Green Mountain Writer's Conference

Classes, workshops and readings for new and developing writers of poetry, fiction and non-fiction. July 30-August 3, 2007